

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS:

With your partner, create 4-6 suitable questions to ask the person you will be interviewing. Keep in mind that the interviewee may have limited time to share with you. If you do not get an answer to your question, then try another source. Don't give up immediately. Record your most important questions first. Be conscious of the reality of this misconception when you plan your questions. The purpose is to seek truth and not offend anyone. Try to avoid any perception of bias in your questions. Remember to introduce yourself and explain your assignment to the interviewee first before you launch into questions.
